EXTEND THE LINES AGAINST THE AMENDMENT

VALUABLE TERRITORY ANNEXED TO THE CITY OF ADA, AT THE MEETING OF THE COUNCIL LAST NIGHT

MOVE TO NEW HALL TOMORROW

Reconsider Specifications for Street Paving—Contract for Lateral Sewers Awarded—To Occupy New City Hall.

A regular meeting of the city council was held in the council room last night with all members present except Mayor Little. The meeting was one of importance to the city and will greatly stimulate the growth of our most excellent city.

After reading the minutes of the previous meeting by Clerk Jones, an account of $188 was allowed L. C. Cales upon contract to furnish shrubbery for Glenwood Park, this being 85 per cent of contract price.

Ordinance No. 192, annexing additional territory to the city of Ada, was passed and is published in this issue of the News. This ordinance makes a total of 1189.35 acres in the town.

Upon motion of Alderman Hill the action taken at the meeting of Nov. 22, 1909, in adopting plans and specifications for paving Main street and Broadway and Townsend avenues, was reconsidered.

By instruction of the council the city officials will move into the new city hall tomorrow, and the account of Mr. Ross, the contractor, was ordered paid, with the exception of $200.

Bids for constructing lateral sewers in District No. 1 were opened, and the bids read. Glickerson & Levy and W. H. Parks were the only bidders. Glickerson & Levy being the lowest bidder the contract was awarded them.

An adjourned session will be held tomorrow evening in the new city hall.

Puts Ban on Shows.

Philadelphia, Nov. 27.—Superintendent Martin Brumbaugh of the public schools has appointed a committee of principals to recommend steps for suppressing the attendance of school children at moving picture shows during school hours. The chairman of the committee, Edwin Y. Montayne, has written to other large cities asking: "To what extent is this practice and evil in your city? What laws or ordinances are in existence, or should be passed, regulating the attendance of children at these shows?"

Carter's Condition Worse.

Armore, Ok., Nov. 29.—The condition of Congressman Charles D. Carter, who has been confined to the sanitarium for the last week, is reported worse tonight. Complications have arisen which cause uneasiness among his friends.

PLAN TO PUT PROHIBITION CLAUSE IN ALABAMA CONSTITUTION IS DEFEATED.

Rural Districts Help to Swell Vote Against Prohibition Amendment. Claim the Majority to be 20,000.

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 29.—All indications point to a majority of between 18,000 and 20,000 in Alabama against the prohibition constitutional amendment today. Chairman J. Lee Long, who has been in charge of the fight against the amendment, claims the majority against the amendment will be fully 20,000.

The early returns indicated a landslide against the amendment, and succeeding bulletins fully bore out the early indications.

Birmingham District Vote.

Jefferson County, in which is Birmingham, the largest city in the State, in spite of the fact that the fight has been concentrated here, gave a majority of over 1,000 against the amendment.

Six counties only gave majorities for the amendment. They are Sumter, Talladega, Chambers, Lee, Macon and Pickens. These majorities are small, the total vote of the six counties being only 510.

Today's election, being the first time the State voters have ever had an opportunity to pass on the prohibition question, is regarded as especially significant. Still it can not be regarded as a straight anti-prohibition victory, because of the personal politics that has been injected into the issue. Its association with the administration of Gov. Comer and his reported ability to name a successor to the Governorship in Judge S. Weakley, author of the prohibition bills, have figured prominently in the result.

A significant feature of the result is the fact that sentiment against the amendment is so widespread that rural precincts, small towns and cities alike, for the most part, entered substantial majorities on the winning side.

There has never been seen anything like the enthusiasm shown in the amendment campaign. Thousands of people from Jefferson and adjoining counties were here to see the returns flashed, and there was much enthusiasm.

Flour Case Dismissed.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 27.—Upon instructions from Attorney General Wickersham, M. L. Temples, United States district attorney in the Southern Iowa district, Saturday dismissed the case brought against three hundred and ten sacks of bleached flour seized by the government officers at Fort Des Moines last summer. The fact that the flour was government property at the time of its seizure was given as a reason for the dismissal.

Death of Leslie Smith.

After an illness of five weeks Leslie Smith, a bright young man about 15 years of age, died this morning of typhoid fever. The burial will be had tomorrow afternoon, the funeral services to be held from the residence of his parents on 14th street and Cherry avenue, Rev. C. Stubblefield, his pastor, will conduct the services.

Leslie was a bright and exemplary young man with many admirable qualities, and in his death the parents lose a most lovable child. The community extends sympathy to the bereaved parents.

TEXAS TRAIN SNOW BOUND

PANHANDLE STORM, WHICH STARTED SUNDAY, IS CAUSE OF INCONVENIENCE.

In Places the Drifts Exceeded Six Feet and Fight Against the Accumulation Was Futile.

Amarillo, Texas, Nov. 29.—Rain and snow continue with unabated volume tonight, there being no time since Saturday evening when there was no precipitation. The weather has assumed a most unpleasant state, with the temperature just at the freezing point all day. Street operations have been practically suspended and all outdoor building work called off.

Lakes and streams are levied to their limit, even in advance of the thaw that promises still greater swells.

Railroad traffic has been hindered the indications are that practically every train entering the city will be delayed from one to several hours each, even if worse inconveniences are not encountered.

The regular Rock Island train plying between Vega and Amarillo was snowbound today about midway between these points. Three engines were finally engaged to enable the train to proceed, but after working for four hours the trip was abandoned and the passengers returned to the station.

In places the drifts exceeded six feet, and the fight against the accumulation was futile.

GO AFTER COUNTY OFFICERS.

Supt. Conger of Anti-Saloon League Makes Startling Statement at Sulphur Meeting.

Sulphur, Nov. 27.—In addressing a meeting here in which a Law and Order League was organized, George C. Conger, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, made the statement that the enforcement department had evidence to submit to the grand jury, convened Monday that he believed would indict and convict city and county officials of Murray county for graft in office and failure to enforce the prohibition laws.
Mr. Conger said the Anti-Saloon League had taken up a fight for amendments to the interstate commerce laws and postal laws by which dry states can prevent the shipment of liquors into dry territory. He stated that this would be a special feature taken up by the National Anti-Saloon League at its meeting in Chicago November 30 to December 9. He also said that Cannon stands in the way of the passage of the amendments desired and that the league would take steps to eliminate him.

A VISIT TO ADA

THE MOST DISTINGUISHED
TRAMP IN THE WORLD
MAKES A VISIT TO THIS CITY—CAME IN LAST NIGHT RIDING
RODS.

HE IS KNOWN AS "A NO. 1"

Has Been Around the World Three Times—Traveled 465,230 Miles Miles at Cost of $7.61.
Speaks and Writes Four Languages.

Have you ever seen a queer cab-listic sign painted on fences and barns along the railroad, right of ways, carved artistically into shanties, water tanks, etc., etc., etc., "A No. 1" with date and an arrow beneath it? If you have never seen it, watch for it and you will be surprised to notice for how many years some of these marks have been decorating those above mentioned places. It is a queer sign, yet it means that "A No. 1," the world's most famous tramp, has passed through and has left behind him this mark showing the date and direction he was journeying. This man whose only known name is this sobriquet, "A No. 1," visited Ada today and to a News reporter who called upon him gave some very interesting experiences of his roving life.
He is well known to all the local railroad men, yet no one ever heard his story, nor that his fame rests on actual facts. It will, no doubt, be interesting to repeat the same here:

"He makes his living by selling a book, 'The Life and Adventures of A No. 1' written by him. It is an illustrated book and contains some wholesome advice to boys who are not satisfied with their home. He also sells beautiful postal cards with his picture, records and autograph on same as souvenirs.

He has hoboed since 1883 465,230 miles, and has spent only $7.61 on railroad fare.

He has been around the world three times. He is a linguist; speaks and writes in four languages. Has prevented twenty wrecks. Wears a $40.00 suit of clothes and a gold watch.
Keeps his name a secret. Does not chew, smoke, drink, swear or gamble.

How did he adopt this queer name?
That is a story, too. When he first started on the road it was with an older man. The latter was attracted by the ingenuousness of the younger companion, by his bright ways, his natural aptitude for a life in box cars, and riding the rods beside the grinding wheels underneath the heavy freights where release for a moment of the bar of iron would have meant a horrible death. "Kid, you're all right," declared the older one at the end of a particularly hard journey. "You're A No. 1." The title has since stuck, and the wanderer has more than lived up to it, for if ever a hobo's life could be said to be a success it is that of this fellow. He travels in overalls and jumpers, but after arriving in a town divests himself of these and appears in a neat suit; is always clean shaven and has a very prosperous appearance.

He has a profession, which is carving potatoes, and in this he has no equal. Hundreds of times he has carved faces for persons in return for small favors. He is also a wood carver of ability.

He has a memorandum book full of cards and letters given him by railroad officials. Several of these state that he has prevented the possible loss of human life and property by telling train operators, when beating his way, of broken car wheels, or other disarrangement, he has prevented serious wrecks and disasters. He has been in four wrecks, but luckily has never been hurt.

He also has an autograph letter from Jack London, the author, telling of their companionship on the road together in 1894.

During his travels "A No. 1" has learned four languages—English, German, French and Spanish. His parents were of the French and German nationality, but he was born in San Francisco, California.

His toilet set is complete, though it takes little room to carry it. It consists of a tooth brush, soap, shaving soap, comb and a few other necessaries. His carving tools are two knives kept very sharp. Blacking and shining rags occupy a part of his pockets, also a pocket edition of Webster's dictionary, a rather strange book for a tramp to carry.

He was asked why he had not written his book sooner, as it is an illustrated and highly interesting story and he stated, lately, after 25 years of roving he has come to the conclusion that the dangerous, senseless and pitiful life he has led all these years have been wasted and that perhaps by telling his own pitiful experiences he might possibly prevent others from following his steps. He said, that to force a boy after he once starts to wander to stay at home is almost impossible, as the maxim, "Once a tramp, always a tramp" has been many times proven to him by actual experiences, as he has met many a boy of fine family and home who never knew the filth, misery and dangers a tramp comes constantly in contact with, yet cannot resist the call to wander.
Had these lads read a book like his own or Jack London's or Josiah Flint's showing the pitiful, dark side of tramp life, perhaps they would never have left their home and friends in exchange for a roving, restless existence. When asked why he did not stop he replied: "Do you know that the call to wander is so irresistible that often on dark and rainy nights I find myself walking about railroad yards looking for a chance to move on?"

"You would not believe me, yet it is a fact, that I realize that my end will be the same as that of 90 per cent of all tramps—an accident. This is why I have at least provided for a decent burial. In 1894, I received $1,000 cash and this beautiful medal from the Police Gazette for tramping from New York to San Francisco in eleven days and six hours, and with $750 of this prize I bought a tombstone in a cemetery at Cambridge, Springs, Pa. Seems strange that almost every night that silent white monument seems to beckon from yonder green hillside in my dreams entreating me to stop my roving. This I have tried to do many times, but in vain, and my epitaph which I hope, will be a silent everlasting warning to others who seem to be afflicted with this strange longing to roam, very aptly called "Wanderlust" is simply:

"A No. 1
The Rambler
At Rest at Last."

TAFT'S DOUBLE A PAINTER.

Has the Same Happy Smile Which Heavy Mustache Cannot Conceal.

Washington, Nov. 27.—When a sightseeing automobile stopped in front of the White House the passengers gaped in astonishment at the big man who stood before them.

There was the familiar rotund form which they had come to know through the prints distributed by the republican national committee in the political campaign of 1908, there was the happy smile which the heavy mustache could not conceal, in fact, there was the man who they wanted most to see.

What made them gape, however, was that the big man was attired in working garb, including overalls and was engaged with a brush in putting the finishing touches to the new coat of white paint with which the president's official residence had been covered.

When the big man saw the sightseeing people gazing at him the smile faded. The visitors chattered as the rubberneck wagon went on its way.
The big man was not President Taft, but he was a pretty good physical imitation of the president.

He was John F. Rhoads, of Philadelphia, who got the contract for repainting the White House. He does not wield a paint brush as a regular thing, because he does not have to, being a manufacturer of paint, but he thought he'd try his hand on the White house for the fun of the thing.

Mr. Rhoads has been here for a month. Every time he appears on the street people grab him by the hand and call him "Mr. President."

Prayed for a Clean Community.

In a fervent prayer in one of the local churches Sunday evening, a brother, who by the way is a live, enterprising citizen of Ada, prayed that the good citizenship of this city might awake and demand a real cleaning up in the community. That because of this being an educational center and the abode of many young people, all is unclean an immoral should be driven out. This is the earnest wish and prayer of many Ada people, but the activity of those who never pray seems to outweigh the work and prayers of those who want a moral awakening.

A VERY REMARKABLE THIEF

A BIRD DOG AT CHEROKEE EM-BARRASSES HIS MASTER—BOOK HAS BEEN REPLACED.

Setter Shows Unusual Instinct and Captures Book of Scriptures From the Christian Church.

Cherokee, Nov. 27.—A bird dog stealing a Bible, was a remarkable theft that occurred in Cherokee this week. The Bible has been replaced by the owner of the dog. The Cherokee Republican prints the following story relative to the theft:

Bird dog pups are known to steal most everything they can pick up and it is a fact that they will carry off shoes, hats and other things around the yard; but the theft of a holy book by one of them is a new departure. The bird dog that will retrieve a bible and take it to its master must have a hunch that the master needs the bible more than he does game birds. Anyway, whether the book is needed or not by the owner of the dog dereliction on the part of the master cannot be charged to the pup.

John Jones, proprietor of the Jones rooming house, has an elegant setter pup, which he is breaking in this season. He has been teaching the pup to retrieve and the animal has proved an apt pupil. Jones lives close to the Christian church. One day last week after the rainy weather, the care taker of the church left the windows and doors all open, to let in some fresh air. The pup was playing around the church yard and the notion suddenly seized it to go inside and see what there was to be found.
The most valuable object for retrieving purposes the dog discovered was a copy of the bible which it promptly took in its mouth and ran to hunt its master. Jones saw the pup coming and called to him. The pup ran up and without any delay delivered the book to the astonished master.

Jones is not superstitious and does not believe in signs but all of his hunting friends are willing to lay a wager that he will not be found hunting on Sunday.

Spend or Invest--Which?

In buying clothes some men simply SPEND their Money—Others INVEST it.

Which Do You Do?

It is not SPENDING money to buy SCHLOSS Clothes—it's investing when such high quality is obtainable at such low prices—the best investment any man can make is in clothes that make him look at his best at all times. Why not Save Half—Try buying Suits and Overcoats that wear Twice As Long? Why not buy the clothes that have proven themselves superior to any others made in America. The "Clothes Beautiful" made by SCHLOSS BROS. & CO. Baltimore and New York.

Have you bought your overcoat? Hundreds of men will buy this week—all will want to get their Money's Worth—Some WILL—some won't. Among those who WILL will be those who make their money go the farthest by design. In overcoats we have the most splendid variety you ever saw in your life.

TO THE LADIES—Just a hint—this is a great place to buy Xmas gifts for men—You can't begin too soon. UNDERWEAR—No time to argue matters now—get some heavier underwear. Knee drawers and athletic shirts should be put away until next year. If you don't want to go into winter quarters as yet, why, then, we've got some ideal medium weights in shirts and drawers. 50c a Garment Up. GLOVES—A lot of hands are being presented these days for gloves. We've all kinds to fit all hands—25c to $1.50.

Sad News to Mrs. F. W. Chambers. Mrs. F. W. Chambers received the sad intelligence this morning that her brother, W. D. Johnston, was lying at the point of death in Bowling Green, Ky. He had for several years lived at Cace City, Ky., and although full particulars of the cause of his fatal injuries have not yet been learned, a telegram stated that he was hurt in a run away on Thanksgiving day. Mrs. Chambers has the sincerest sympathy of many friends.

VALUE OF NEW PROCESS. Mr. Bradley's Demonstrates that Sweet Potatoes Can Be Kept Under Unfavorable Conditions.

M. E. Bradley, the originator of the new process of keeping sweet potatoes, which is being followed by Bills and Armstrong, invited several citizens to the storage plant Friday afternoon and showed the visitors through. Mr. Bradley says this process will keep potatoes under the most unfavorable circumstances. To refute the idea that potatoes dug during wet and muddy weather and stored while damp will rot, he poured mud and water over and through a pile of potatoes which were just harvested, and guaranteed that not a single one would decay under the new process.

The Bills-Armstrong crop which have been stored now almost a month are in a perfect state of soundness and the new process promises to revolutionize the business of growing sweet potatoes on the southern farm.

FROM WHENCE OUR MILLIONS

BUSY HEN ADDS GREATLY TO SUM TOTAL OF STATE'S PROSPERITY.

LIVE STOCK IMPORTANT FACTOR

Even Ginseng and Corn Cobs Are Valuable In Bringing Revenue to the State.

If it is true that every hen in the world cackles every time she lays an egg, and our oldest residents positively assert that she does, there would be a "right smart" uproar in Oklahoma if all her hens got together and gave one long, concentrated cackle to celebrate the grand and glorious work they have accomplished during the past year.

The helpful hen has been a busy bird in Oklahoma, according to the second annual report of the state department of labor, issued by Commissioner Charles L. Daugherty. During the time considered in his report the hens of the new state cackled at least 10,654,109 dozen times, for Mr. Daugherty says he knows positively of that many dozen eggs, which were listed last year as surplus products. But there must have been a great many more cackles than that, for the report makes no mention of eggs that were stolen, spoiled, thrown at actors, sucked by the hounds or used for home consumption. Anyway, the egg buyers shelled out over $2,000,000 to the Oklahoma farm wife for these surplus eggs.

Oh, You Busy Hen!

During the fiscal year included in the report Oklahoma produced over 12,500,000 pounds of live poultry, valued at $1,450,820.50, and of dressed poultry, 1,970,452 pounds, valued at $246,306.50. Feathers were rather a light crop, the total being 12,014 pounds at a value of a trifle over $7,000. The total value of all farmyard products was $3,622,129.02.

Cheese amounted to 37,147 pounds, at a value of almost $4,000, while the amount of cream and milk was over 5,000,000 pounds. The butter amounted to 2,686,406 pounds, and brought the sum of $305,921.80.

It is to be remembered that these figures in every case take into account only the surplus products, and do not account for the vast amount of these products that were consumed at home.

The new state saw mills have been mighty busy, too. Oklahoma's great forests have as yet been practically untouched, yet last year its surplus lumber product was 23,728,937 feet of hard wood lumber and 118,995,700 of softwood lumber. Nearly 3,000,000 feet of walnut logs are listed with other surplus products, and the total surplus of forest products amounted to almost 4,000,000 feet.

Valuable Stock.

The surplus live stock was valued at $37,375,93. Of these there were 536,085 head of cattle, worth $24,123,622; 717,182 head of hogs, worth $11,957,730. These figures give some idea of how the state will be benefited when these products are marketed at Oklahoma City's stockyards and Oklahoma cattle and hogs slaughtered at the new Morris packing house.

The report takes into account some things that may seem amusing. For instance, it is recorded that among other surplus products there are 16 cars of corn cobs and 515 pounds of ginseng. The ginseng brought $2,575, and the corn cobs $360. It took 33,840 gallons of mineral water, worth $6,768 to supply the outside demand, while cut flowers were valued at $3,783. Mosses shipped out amounted to 188,855 gallons, and brought $75,542. Among other surplus products were pickles worth $43,407.68 and onions to the value of over $10,000. Potatoes headed the list of vegetables, with almost 600,000 pounds, valued at $359,495.10.

Christmas Dinners.

Of the surplus farmyard products live poultry stood first, with nearly half the total amount or $1,450,820.50. In farmyard products Logan county led with $373,598, Lincoln county stood first on live poultry, 1,659,897 pounds, with Logan and Beckham counties following closely. Garfield county had 1,124,092 pounds of dressed poultry. Custer county coming second with 638,063 pounds. Cherokee county carried off the banner for the surplus production of eggs, 1,348,680 dozen. Logan and Noble counties were second and third, respectively. Grant county had the largest surplus of milk and cream, 685,270 pounds, while Payne stood at the head of the butter division with 506,950 pounds. In each of these divisions Garfield county stood second. In live stock Grady county leads in both cattle and hogs, producing 40,411 head of cattle and 48,160 head of hogs. The counties standing second in cattle and hog production are widely separated, geographically. Muskogee standing second as to cattle and Garfield second as to hogs. Two even more widely separated counties stand third, Jefferson holding that place in the production of surplus cattle and Grant in hog production. All of which goes to show how many different portions of the state are well adapted to the successful raising of live stock.

The surplus farm crops for the period under consideration placed in the hands of the Oklahoma farmer $22,427,237.95. Wheat leads in this class with $9,399,500; corn is next with $7,800,717.60; while hay falls third with $2,333,979.

Garfield's Lead.

In wheat production Garfield county leads with 1,414,000 bushels. Next comes Alfalfa county with 1,364,000 with Grant third, 1,303,000.

Grady county naturally had to have a whole lot of corn to feed her immense amount of live stock, so she led in corn production with 2,210,400 bushels to the good. Caddo and Canadian counties fall second and third, respectively, in this respect.

It is a long distance from Jackson to Blaine county, yet these stood first and second, respectively, in oats production. Ottawa, Craig and Bryan counties were the top notchers in hay production. Woodward led in broom corn, Texas and Woods following closely.

The lumber producing counties are closely grouped. Pushmataha county leads in the production of soft wood lumber but trades places as to hardwood. LeFlore county comes third in each of these, while Johnston county carries off the palm in the production of walnut logs.

Custer's Flour.

Custer county made more flour than any other county in the state, 59,140,000 pounds. Kay county came second and Oklahoma county third in flour production.

The report devotes 36 pages to the details of surplus products in the various counties. In every county in the state there is great interest in the report as newspapers, teachers and others are anxious to ascertain the standing of their home county. The report has been widely circulated and Commissioner Daugherty would be glad to hand one to every citizen in the state, were there only enough copies to go around—but, unfortunately, there are not—Oklahoman.

REVIVAL SERVICES BEGIN NEXT SUNDAY

First Methodist Church Ada, Ok.

The congregation of the First Methodist church is to begin a revival next Sunday. Rev. Joe M. Ramsey of Tennessee, one of the best known evangelists of the church will arrive Friday and will occupy the pulpit Sunday morning and during the meeting. Rev. E. R. Smoot, a gifted singer and chorus leader will direct the music of the services. The pastor of the church, Rev. W. M. Wilson, invites the co-operation of every christian in the community in this evangelistic effort. The pastors of the other churches of the city have promised to assist in the meeting and are now at work for its success. On next Friday evening at 7:15 the official members of all the churches are requested to meet the pastors and Brother Ramsey in the parlors of the First Methodist church for a conference in the interest of the meeting.

Every one in the city who will assist in the singing of these services is requested to meet Brother E. R. Smoot in the auditorium of the First Methodist church next Friday evening.

WHY SALVES FAIL

TO CURE ECZEMA

They Clog the Pores—Only a Liquid Can Reach the Inner Skin.

Since the old-fashioned theory of curing eczema through the blood has been given up by scientists, many different salves have been tried for skin diseases. But it has been found that these salves only clog the pores and can not penetrate to the inner skin below the epidermis where the eczema germs are lodged.

This—the quality of penetrating—probably explains the tremendous success of the only standard liquid eczema cure, oil of wintergreen as compounded in D. D. D. Prescription. After ten years of cure after cure, the world's leading skin specialists have accepted this as the true eczema cure.

We ourselves do not hesitate to recommend D. D. D. Prescription at $1.00 a bottle, but for the benefit of those who have never tried the prescription we arranged with the D. D. D. laboratories of Chicago for a special large trial bottle at 25 cents on a special offer now. This first bottle ought to convince every sufferer, and, at any rate, it will surely take away the itch at once.

LOCATE RELATIVE.

Message Received This Afternoon From John W. Whiteley—Supposed to Be a Brother.

The following telegram was received this afternoon by Mr. B. Crosby, relative to the late W. B. Whiteley and is as follows:

Muskegon, Mich.

Nov. 30, 1909.

B. Crosby, Ada, Okla.

Have W. B. Whiteley buried and write me cause of death and all particulars concerning him.

John W. Whiteley.

The telegram was in answer to one sent him yesterday by Mr. Crosby, who had secured his address from a small memorandum book found in the trunk of deceased. Nothing is known of John W. Whiteley, but he is supposed to be a brother. A letter is expected to follow this message which will throw more light upon the matter of his identity. The body is being kept at the undertaking establishment of L. T. Walters and will be buried just as soon as the weather will permit.

THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S LEAGUE.

A Pleasant Social Evening at the Church Parlors.

The young people composing the membership of the Young People's League of the First Methodist church were most delightfully entertained at the church parlors last night by Mrs. J. M. Watkins, the superintendent of this most excellent order, assisted by Mrs. W. M. Wilson.

Quite a goodly number were in attendance, in fact almost the entire membership, who expressed themselves most gratefully for a pleasant evening. Chocolate and cakes were served.
